Data privacy

Bella IG collects the personal data of participants for the purpose of preparing and organising the annual meeting. The data will not be passed on to third parties. The data will be deleted as soon as it is no longer required for the purpose of its processing and insofar as there is no legal obligation to retain it. It is possible to obtain information about all participants' personal data free of charge. For questions and requests for deletion, correction or blocking of personal data as well as collection, processing and use, participants can contact the organisation team of the annual meeting (see address below).

By submitting their entry form, participants (drivers, co-drivers, children, vehicle owners and keepers) declare their consent to the taking of photographs and filming during the event and to the granting of free broadcasting, public reproduction, recording, duplication and editing rights with regard to the film or photo recordings made of them, any accompanying persons or their vehicles. The granting of rights also includes the use of recordings for the purposes of self-promotion, event promotion and use by sponsors and partners.

Not only the organiser, but also the participants and spectators have a legitimate interest in taking photographs and possibly video recordings of the event and possibly publishing them. If you want to be sure that you do not appear in any photographs of the organiser, participants or visitors, we can unfortunately only recommend that you stay away from the annual meeting. Of course, you can contact the organising team on site if you do not wish to be photographed. Even if you discover later that the organisers have taken photos of you that you do not like, participants can contact the organising team (see address below). However, we have no influence on other recordings, e.g. of participants or visitors, and in particular not on photos, videos and the reporting of e.g. daily newspapers and trade magazines.

Liability and general participation rules:

Participants (drivers, co-drivers, children, vehicle owners and keepers) take part in the event at their own risk and waive all rights of action and recourse against the organiser, its agents and helpers, the lessor of the event site, the authorities and any persons connected with the organisation of the event for themselves and their dependants by submitting the entry form for all accidents and damage suffered in connection with the event - unless caused by intent or gross negligence. Participants are responsible under civil and criminal law for all damage caused by them and their vehicles. The road traffic regulations must be observed under all circumstances.

The exclusion of liability becomes effective for all participants upon submission of the entry form. The prerequisite for participation is the completed and signed entry form together with payment of the entry fee. The organiser may reject an entry without giving reasons. Should a provision be invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions.

Declaration of consent

I/We have taken note of and agree to the above-mentioned rules of the annual meeting on data protection, photo and video recordings, liability and the general rules of participation.
